

One day watchmakers - Realize your own watch-clock (21185)

Objective

At the end of the module, the participants are able to understand the functioning of a simple watch

Target public

Parent / family

Description of the course

- Adult and 7-10-year-old child. An original activity to be shared with your child, nephew, niece or godchild.
- Get acquainted with the sector of the watch-making, discover its secrets, while making your own watch-clock together with a watchmaker!
- Panorama of the various components of a watch, an understanding and a functioning of a mechanical watch.
- Understanding and functioning of a mechanical watch

The course is limited to 6 participants

Finances : CHF 350.00 per person, including support of course, the material of work, the kit of exercise and the watch-clock made by yourself

Place : Fondation Horlogère, Rue des Malvoisin 2, 2900 Porrentruy, in association with Université Populaire

A certificate of follow-up of course will be supplied at the end of the course.